Q: After reading your manga, Sensei, I'm inspired to follow my dream. My dream is to build a big bridge in America.

A: That's nice. A young man with dreams. I like that. All right then, do it. And if anyone gets in your way I'll go and--wearing hard leather boots--stomp on the pinky toe of his foot, so don't worry. Go for it.

Q: Knock, knock, Oda Sensei. Oda-body home!!?

Q: When Patty the Cook says "I'm turniply saucy," what does it mean?

A: "I'm terribly sorry." He tends to make things sound like food. For example, he might say: "He's quite a man. He did lettuce of ham-glazing a-cheese-mints. Peas apple-aud him." But if you say things like that, people will probably look at you funny.

Q: A question for you. Is there a bone in Usopp's nose? I've seen it bend so many times. Like squish.

A: I've never seen that. Bend...like squish? How absurd...

Whoa!! It does Bend!!!

Here ends SBS!!
